DIOCESAN NEWS

* Coronavirus (COVID-19): Precautionary measures

- Everyone being more attentive than usual to the normal hygienic routine of washing hands thoroughly and often with soap and warm water.
- Holy Water Stoups will remain empty for the time being.
- The Sign of Peace will be omitted at Mass.
- Holy Communion will be given under one kind only and the Host will be placed on the hand. During these next few months Holy Communion should not be received on the tongue since there is a greater danger of passing on the infection.
- Both the Priest and any Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion who is assisting him will wash their hands both before and after the distribution of Holy Communion.

* The Bishop Alan reminds us, that, if for any reason we do not feel able to receive Holy Communion in the hand, that we can still make a good and sincere act of spiritual communion, a practice highly commended by many of the saints, especially St Alphonsus. At the time of Holy Communion we can turn to the Lord Jesus, and pray to him quietly, saying: "Lord Jesus, though I may not at this moment receive you in Holy Communion, please come into my heart, your whole Soul and Divinity, and remain there, and keep me safe. I love you Jesus, always. Amen."

My eyes are always on the Lord, for he rescues my feet from the snare. Turn to me and have mercy on me, for I am alone and poor.

A spring of water welling up to eternal life.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading: Exodus (17:3-7)

Give us water to drink.

Responsorial Psalm: (Ps 94:1-2,6-9. R. v.8)

'Harden not your hearts.'

Lord, you are really the saviour of the world;
give me the living water, so that I may never get thirsty.
Glory to you, O Christ, you are the Word of God!

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, (bow)
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.
