ORDER OF MASS

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: (Cf Ps. 30:3-4)

Be my protector, O God,
a mighty stronghold to save me.
For you are my rock, my stronghold!
Lead me, guide me, for the sake of your name.

PENITENTIAL RITE

Jesus Christ, you were sent by the Father to bring good news to the poor.

Jesus Christ, you came to save us from sin.
Jesus Christ, you were sent to proclaim the grace and mercy of God.

THE GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
You alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen

A reading from Prophet Jeremiah (17:5-8)

The Lord says this:

'A curse on the man who puts his trust in man,
who relies on things of flesh,
whose heart turns from the Lord.
He is like dry scrub in the wastelands:
if good comes, he has no eyes for it,
he settles in the parched places of the wilderness,
a salt land, uninhabited.
'A blessing on the man who puts his trust in the Lord,
with the Lord for his hope.
He is like a tree by the waterside
that thrusts its roots to the stream:
when the heat comes it feels no alarm,
its foliage stays green;
it has no worries in a year of drought,

and never ceases to bear fruit.'

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: (Ps 1:1-4,6.R Ps 39:5)

R. Happy the man who has placed his trust in the Lord.

Happy indeed is the man
who follows not the counsel of the wicked;
nor lingers in the way of sinners
nor sits in the company of scorners,
but whose delight is the law of the Lord
and who ponders his law day and night. R

He is like a tree that is planted
beside the flowing waters,
that yields its fruit in due season
and whose leaves shall never fade;
and all that he does shall prosper. R

Not so are the wicked, not so!
For they like winnowed chaff
shall be driven away by the wind:
for the Lord guards the way of the just
but the way of the wicked leads to doom. R

A reading from the first letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians (15:12,16-20)

If Christ raised from the dead is what has been preached, how can some of you be saying that there is no resurrection of the dead? For if the dead are not raised, Christ has not been raised, and if Christ has not been raised, you are still in your sins. And what is more serious, all who have died in Christ have perished. If our hope in Christ has been for this life only, we are the most unfortunate of all people.

But Christ has in fact been raised from the dead,
the first-fruits of all who have fallen asleep.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: (sung) (Lk 6:23)

Alleluia, alleluia!

Rejoice and be glad your reward will be great in heaven.

Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke (6:17,20-26)

Jesus came down with the Twelve and stopped at a piece of level ground where there was a large gathering of his disciples with a great crowd of people from all parts of Judaea and from Jerusalem and from the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon.

Then fixing his eyes on his disciples he said:

‘How happy are you who are poor: yours is the kingdom of God.

Happy you who are hungry now: you shall be satisfied.

Happy you who weep now: you shall laugh.

Happy are you when people hate you, drive you out, abuse you, denounce your name as criminal, on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice when that day comes and dance for joy, for then your reward will be great in heaven. This was the way their ancestors treated the prophets.

‘But alas for you who are rich: you are having your consolation now.

Alas for you who have your fill now: you shall go hungry.

Alas for you who laugh now: you shall mourn and weep.

‘Alas for you when the world speaks well of you! This was the way their ancestors treated the false prophets.’

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and our salvation
he came down from heaven, (please bow)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins

and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Memorial Acclamation: (Pauline tradition 1Cor 11:26)

We proclaim your death O Lord, and profess your resurrection, until you come again.

Communion Antiphon (Cf. Ps 77:29-30)

They ate and had their fill,
and what they craved the Lord gave them;
they were not disappointed in what they craved.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Holy Sacrament of the altar. I love you above all things and I passionately desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come spiritually into my soul so that I may unite myself wholly to you now and forever. Amen.

THE SYNODAL PATHWAY: WORDS FOR OUR JOURNEY: Hearing Challenges

As a Mental Health Social Worker, I was recently asked to share a small sample of some of my experiences on Radio Maria England for World Day of the Sick Novena, much of which seems fitting for our title ‘Hearing Challenges’.

In some shape or form, I have worked in mental health for over 20 years and it’s hard not to imagine hearing challenges along the way. Some of those challenges have come directly from individuals such as:

BW whose family life broke down because of his bipolar diagnosis. One minute he was part of a loving family unit, with his wife and 3 healthy boys and next living off the streets and being exploited by teenage girls for his pension and the use of his flat every Friday night.

Then there was CW who had a diagnosis of early onset dementia and whose family supported her long after her she was placed in nursing care, where she roamed the breath and length of the care home, day and night for years. She eventually became immobile and confined to bed.

SW was someone who incessantly rang the emergency services at every available opportunity or quite frankly anyone’s number she could get hold of due to high anxiety about being left on her own.

She was a victim of abuse and then ended up in a marriage, where she felt unloved and attempted to commit suicide.

Several scriptures comes to mind as I recall the privilege of being involved in so many people's lives.

My grace is sufficient for you, for my powers is made perfect in weakness. (2 Cor 12:9)

The sufferings of the present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. (Rom 8: 18)

And after you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, establish and strengthen you. (1 Peter 5:10)

In our small corner, we can still do much to reach out to others who share their challenging stories with us: a kind word, a smile, sharing our time, being friendly, showing respect and understanding, being patient and so on. What wonderful opportunities we have, not only reaching out to others experiencing challenging moments in their lives, but also growing in the many virtues and gifts of the Holy Spirit.
