Feast of St John Fisher

St John Fisher came to Cambridge to study in 1480's and in 1504, he became the University's Chancellor for life. In May 1535, he was created Cardinal by Pope Paul III, but he was not allowed to go to Rome to receive the red hat. He was executed on Tower Hill (London) on 22nd June 1535. In 1935, he was canonised together with St Thomas More by Pope Pius XI. On 2nd January 2018, our Parish was erected with Our Lady of Lourdes and St John Fisher as our patrons.

Fr Raf's Diamond Jubilee Celebration

Bring and Share Supper at Our Lady of Lourdes, Sawston for Fr Raf Esteban on Sat 29th June following an anniversary Mass at 18:00. SJF community welcome too.

Children and Youth Enrichment Day

Sat 13th July, SJF Cambourne Church. Lead by Dr Sue Price (Margaret Beaufort Institute). Theme: How do we know God and how does God reveal himself to us?

We truly encourage the children and adolescents to come out but we also hope that parents and those interested in sharing their faith with the young in our community also come, taste and see, and be inspired.

More details to follow... save the date!

Fatima Pilgrimage

Fr John will lead a pilgrimage to Fatima from Mon 28th to Thu 31st October 2024.

Leaflets in church and on website/Facebook

Parish Prayer

Heavenly Father, we come before You to praise You and to thank You for the great gift of our parish and the community we have here. Holy and just God, we thank you for touching the hearts and the life of each parishioner. Keep us from pure self-serving behaviour and stir us to serve people who are most in need of your mercy. Lord, grant that each family might live their specific vocation to holiness in the Church as a call to become missionary disciples, in the service of life and peace, in communion with our priests, religious, and all vocations in the Church. Amen.

First Reading (A reading from the book of Job 38:1,8-11)

From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said:

Who pent up the sea behind closed doors when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb, when I wrapped it in a robe of mist and made black clouds its swaddling bands; when I marked the bounds it was not to cross and made it fast with a bolted gate? Come thus far, I said, and no farther: here your proud waves shall break.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm (Psalms 106(107):23-26,28-31)

(R) O give thanks to the Lord, for his love endures for ever.

Some sailed to the sea in ships to trade on the mighty waters.

These men have seen the Lord's deeds,
the wonders he does in the deep. (R)

For he spoke; he summoned the gale, tossing the waves of the sea up to heaven and back into the deep;
their souls melted away in their distress. (R)

Then they cried to the Lord in their need and he rescued them from their distress.
He stilled the storm to a whisper: all the waves of the sea were hushed. (R)

They rejoiced because of the calm and he led them to the haven they desired.
Let them thank the Lord for his love, for the wonders he does for men. (R)

Second Reading (A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 5:14-17)

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them.

From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation (Ephesians 1:17,18)

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our mind, so that we can see what hope his call holds for us.

Alleluia

Gospel (Mark 4:35-41)

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over to the other side.'

And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again.

Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.
